

Communication with the Public

Section 1. General. EACS Administration shall maintain a continuing program of internal employee relations and community relations through two-way communication.

The Director of Community Relations and Development shall encourage the creation and implementation of harmonious public relations for enabling the community to make known its desires and concerns, and for the Board to make known its plans and actions.

The Superintendent of Schools will periodically evaluate the community relations program and advise the Board of recommended modifications and improvements.