

Bulldogs Bring Home Wins

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs brought three wins home from the Volleyball matches in Tribune on September 14. The girls left early Saturday morning to travel to Greeley County for rematches against both the Lady Jackrabbits and the Heartland Lady Crusaders. "We had defeated both teams just a few days earlier," said Hailee Spresser, senior. "So we were fairly confident we could do so again."

They had defeated both teams in Rexford the previous Tuesday and the Lady Bulldogs continued their victories on Saturday. In the first game against Greeley County, the Lady Bulldogs easily claimed the 25-5 victory. The Lady Jackrabbits put up more of a battle in the second set, but the Lady Bulldogs claimed the win 25-13. The matches against Heartland challenged the Lady Bulldogs a bit more, but the girls once again were victorious 25-15, 25-22.

The JV girls followed the varsity lead in their win over Tribune, but had to go three sets. They defeated the Lady Jackrabbits 25-18 in the first set, but played a close loss 23-25 in the second. Both teams kept up the pace in the third with the Lady Bulldogs coming out with the win 15-12. "We were nervous throughout the game because it was so close," said Gabrielle Schiltz. Morgan Ritter added, "But we kept ourselves composed to get the win." The JV girls will play at home again on September 24 when they host Quinter, Cheylin, and Heartland.
